SERENISSIMO
CAROLO EMANVELI
Sabaudiæ Duci, &c.

A Gitvr nonusdecimus annus ex quo litteris Serenißimi patris tuæ Celſitudinis, accerſitus ex vrbe Parmenſi in banc me ciuitatem contuli. Is aduenientem tam bumanè excepit, tanta deinde liberalitate fuit complexus ego vicißim ei deſeruiendi, tam vebementi cupiditate fui accenſus, vt ſub eius ditione quodſuper-eßet vitæ agere conſtituerem. Cuius in me benignitas, mea in illum obſeruantia mirum in modum mutuo vſu, & conſuetudine eſt adaucta, vt idem Dux me ſecum dum ruſticaretur eße vellet, ſæpè etiam ſecum pernoctare; quo quidem tempore de Matbematicis ſcientijs mecum agebat, in quibus perdiſcendis mea opera vtebatur, quæſtiones, Arithmeticam, Geo-metriam, Opticen, Muſicam, aut Astrologiam ſpectantes proponens. Cui vt quod in me eßet ſatisfacerem, acrius quàm anteainea studia (adquætamen ſemper fui propenßi-mus) incubui. illiusque imitatione (vt ferècæteri Principum studiaimitantur) non pauci aut præſentes, aut per litter as me de his, atque illis Mathematicis quæstionibus conſuluerunt.
Cùmque ego nunquam laborem amicorum cauſa defugerim, euenit vt post tot annorum curricula, mea ſcrinia ſcrutatus, inuenerim tot abſolutas quæſtiones, vt ex eis corpus mediocre effici poſſe videretur. Quas, cùm rationibus in epiſtola ſub-ſequenti allatis edere constituiſſem, non ſub cuiuſque alte-rius nomine, & auſpicijs quam tuæ Celſitudinis volui apparere; tum quòd patri debitum libellum filio reddere par erat, tum
